

THE PANCAKE OF MISTAKES

storytime™

Sometimes, making mistakes can make you feel upset. But the next time you make a mistake, why not 'flip it over' and write about the positive things you learned from the experience?

Making Mistakes

By Jessica Bowers

My heart just sinks, my mistake stinks, my watery eyes go blink, blink, blink.

I feel silly, my heart's gone chilly,
the path ahead seems so hilly.

Let's just rewind, rethink your mind,
lift the clouds you're stuck behind.

Mistakes are cool, a useful tool,
to help you learn just like at school.

Think and then say "I am OK", tomorrow is another day!

Go get it wrong, still sing your song,
you're super, fab and you belong.

(Even grown-ups get stuff wrong!)

My mistake!

The lessons
I learned from it!

IT'S OK TO MAKE MISTAKES!

Everybody makes them – and learning from them helps us to grow as people!
